London Public Library Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Policy

Effective: May 19, 2022 Next Review: May 20, 2026

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this Policy is to provide the framework for and commitment to fostering Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) at London Public Library (Library).

The Library endorses the Position Statement on Diversity and Inclusion prepared by the Canadian Federation of Library Associations (CFLA) and the IFLA/UNESCO
Multicultural Library Manifesto prepared by the International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions (IFLA) and the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO).

SCOPE:

This Policy governs and supports internal and external services and practices and applies to all Library Staff, Volunteers, Board Members and all persons participating in Library business or activities, including patrons, service providers, and contractors.

This Policy is in accordance with the principles of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, the Canadian Human Rights Act, the Ontario Human Rights Code and the Diversity and Inclusion Policy for the City of London.

The Library recognizes that it may have other policies in place that relate to EDI. This Policy is intended to complement and build on the existing policy framework and should be used and read in conjunction with other such policies and corresponding procedures.

DEFINITIONS:

Equity is a state where everyone is treated according to their diverse needs in a way that enables all people to participate, perform, and engage to the same extent.

Diversity is about the individual. It is about the variety of unique dimensions, qualities, and characteristics we all possess, and the mix that occurs in any group of people.

Inclusion is creating a culture that embraces, respects, accepts and values Diversity. It is a mindful and equitable effort to meet the individual needs so everyone feels valued, respected, and able to contribute to their fullest.

POLICY STATEMENT:

The Library values the principles of EDI. Each person has the right to an environment that is welcoming and respectful to all without discrimination based upon age, ancestry, citizenship, creed, colour, race, ethic origin, place of origin, disability, family status, marital status, gender identity, gender expression, sex, sexual orientation, education or socioeconomical status.

London Public Library Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Policy

Effective: May 19, 2022 Next Review: May 20, 2026

All Library Staff, Volunteers and Board Members share the responsibility for creating a supportive and inclusive environment.

COMMITMENTS:

The Library commits to the following:

- to foster a culture that embraces EDI and a sense of belonging that will be reflected in its collections, facilities, events and programs, partnerships, outreach efforts, hiring practices, board representation, volunteer recruitment, communications, professional development and training;
- to recognize and address the underlying beliefs, values, assumptions and stereotypes of staff and provide ongoing opportunities for all employees to engage in open conversations about racism or oppression;
- to apply an anti-racism and anti-oppression lens to our purpose, values, strategic plan, service model, policies and procedures;
- to create objectives, timelines, and mechanisms to track and report progress towards the vision contained in this Policy;
- to welcome diverse viewpoints, backgrounds and voices from the London community in the creation and evaluation of Library services; and,
- to assist and support the implementation of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada: Calls to Action, with specific attention given to the CFLA-FCAB Truth and Reconciliation Report and Recommendations.
